Capt. St. Clair Morgan of Nash ei le, Teun., was then introduced. He said he had been one of the most conservative of men, and but a short time since was serving as a body guard of the Union candidate. [A voice-Thee cheers for John Bell of Tennesses. Tores cheers were called for the man who gave the cane to Brooks with which he caned Samner, in respones to which Mr. Dix of South Carolina favored them with a poetical quotation.

Gen. Bynam, of Coutton ga, Tenn., advised the stedenta to go home.

The resolutions were debated in short speeches, and they were finally modified so as to advise students to go tome only after the States to which they respectively belong shall have actually sonded.

During the latter part of the evening eager inquiries were made for THE TRIBUNE reporter, a d some amusing mistakes were made by a few raw country boye, who appeared to have the interests of that judi vidual specialty in charge. Among others may be mentioned the case of Dr. M. H. Henry of Union square, who was leaving the room. He was roughly accorted by some students as the reporter of THE TRIBUNE, who, without asking, attempted to search him; they were quickly repulsed by the Doctor in a quiet and prompt manner.

It is but justice, however, to state that the meeting was made up to a large extent of men of gentlemanly bearing, and apparently of culture, and of course they are not to be held accountable for the ill breeding displayed by these youths.

NINE CHEERS FOR ULSTER. Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

NEW-PALTZ, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1860. Precoming that news from Ulater may not be unacceptable to you, I send some herewith.

The quarries and hemlocks, the mountains and valleys of Old Ulster have spoken for Freedom. The "mud-sills" that toil in her limestone mountain caves and in her flag-stone quarries, that swing the now immortal ax among the giant hemlocks on her rocky hills, that attend to the interests of the mortal sole among her tanneries, the solidold Haguen stand Datch farmers on her fertile flats, would respectfully and constitutionally by the ballot-box notify the South that "the Union must and shall be preserved," that the motto "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and "inseperable," is ours. We went to the polls with boots presupposed to be top-deep in Fusion mud, but we have cleaned them thoroughly now. The Tribuse, even, would not give us 300 positive and 500 probable majority for Honest Old Abs. It can now own that it was wrong, and correct accordingly.

We have given our Congressmen in the county 500 majority. Our Electoral ticket about the same and

We have given our Congressmen in the county 500 majority. Our Electoral ticket about the same, and our Treasurer William H. De Garmo, a Quaker, with coat tails near the ground a majority of near 1,000, fally proving that the Quakers of Ulster were out.

Were I an old political lady, I would say "Dear me! How it thunders." But, being a young Wide-Awake, I wince at nothing. I have looked for this result with my eves open.

George T. Pierce, then whom a more consistent, a more earnest, and a more hard-working Free Soil Democrat is not in our State, is elected by a rousing majority. Old Ulster is proud to send him as one of her representatives to repudiste the Gridiron legislation, as represented by our late member. George Law can't buy him.

After Mr. Kelly's nomication, a large company of After Mr. Kelly's nomication, a large company of Democrats went from Kirgston and Roundout to Rhinebeck, to call on the would-be Governor. They carried a banner, "Old Ulster good for 2,500." The Journal of Commerce in its estimate at a later day, exid of us "claimed 1,200 Democratic majority by Democrats," "conceded by a Republican or Lincoln man, 1,800." Now I wou'd offer $1,000 reward for that said Lincoln man, payable by P. T. Barnum to our order.

To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.

SIR: I promised you that we would double our vote of 1856. We have done so, by polling over 1,400 for Lincoln, against 668 for Fremont. Our adversaries have the advantage of a largely-increased vote, making the majority against us a little over 900.

The State ticket will not vary much from the above. No county in the State has done better. We have almost equaled our plurality over Buchanan in 1856. Our work has been done quietly, few large meetings baving been held; but the whole county has been ablaze for weeks with school district and town meet

Our member of Congress for this district has over 8,000 majority, and the member of Assembly for this county over 2,000.

ALLEGANY COUNTY.

To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.

Sir: Allegany County has given a Republican majority of 4,000. The bolt upon Col. May, the Republican candidate for memoer in the Hd Assembly District, privately instigated by Angelica politicisns, who opposed the candidate on local grounds, has damaged the Electoral and State Ticket in the District several hundred votes, in consequence of the effort to elect the Democratic candidate. SIXTH WARD, ALBANY.

To the Edwar of The N. Y. Tribune. Sin: You will notice in our papers the figures, giving the Lincoln Electoral Ticket a majority of 32-a Republican gain of 164 in the Sixth Ward.

The Sixth Ward is the home of our Democratic Mayor (Thatcher); and also of the notorious " Pete Caggsr." We of course feel somewhat like singing load.
Yours, &c., SIXTH WARD WIDE-AWAKE.

NEW-JERSEY NOT SO BAD.

To the Editor of The N. V. Tribune. Sir: This little State having been by your neighbor, The Herald, called the green spot of the North, and set down for Fusion by 4 000 majority, may not be all green. It may require the official count to tell, but without doubt Mesers. Parker, Ruoyon, and Cook are elected for Douglas by about 3 500 majority, while Mesers. Hornblower, Brown, Scudder, and Hay are also the Republican Electors by a majority of 500 to 700. The telegrams which have reached the Press many of them have been erroneous; for instance, Warren County is put down as gone for Fasion by 500, which is the fact on three names, while on the others there is several hundred difference. Next Tuesday evening, I think, the Republicans can jolify in a better style than the Fusionists are doing in Jersey

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

CITY FONDS -The quarterly report of the City handsome majority, and the Legislature stands tied on Treasure c, shows that the general fixed amounts to just ballot, between the Democrats and the People's $553,1'-7 02: special fund, $150 414 35; sinking fund, $8. .02 24, making a sum total of $711 643 61, which um is deposited in several of the city banks.

A FAT OFFICE OBTAINED WITH VERY LITTLE TROUBLE—BLUNDERS ALL AROUND.—It appears that the offile of Coroner for the First District comprising the old city of Brooklyn was vacant and hardly anybody knew it, and the consequence is that a man is elected to fill the office who did not know he was ranning for it, and owes his election to a series of blunders. If we remember rightly the facts are those: Cornelins Cozine was elected Coroner in this district in 1857; he shortly after resigned and took a position in the Navy-Yard. Thomss II Redding was appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy until an election could be held. In 1858 Mr. Horton the present incumbent, was elected to fill the meanined term, which ends with the let of January next. The Secretary of State made no call on the Sheril' for an election and no nomination was made by any of the political parties. Ex-Coroner Redding started a little arrangement on his own hook, and he had his name slyly printed on the Republican ticket in his own Ward (the Niath), where he received 100 votes. He thought he had a sure thing of it, but by another blue der the cup is snatched from his lits. The Independent Democrats nominated Wm. A. Murphy for Coroner in the IVth District; but not desiring to defeat his party, he refored the nomination; but his name was kept up, nevertheless, to complete the ticket. It appears that some of Murphy's tickets were erroneduly "For Coroner, first District," and 400 of these tickets were deposited. This knocks spots out of Mr. Redding's private arrangement, and, if we are correct, Mr. Murphy is elected to an office worth some $2,000 a year, through a series of curious blunders.

SENDING THREATENING LETTERS .- An intelligent-SENDING THREATENING LETTERS.—An intelligent-looking but very poorly-clad woman, named Ann Mc-Denald, but calling herself Mrs. Brough, was brought before Justice Blatchly yesterday morning, on the complaint of Mr. Brough, the actor, who resides in Adams street. The complaint all-ges that the letters contained threats of criminal charges to be preferred against Mr. Brough, and also threats of personal violence, and were sent for the purpose of exterting money from him. The accused devied the charge, but stated that she had claims of the strongest character upon Mr. Brough. claims of the strongest character upon Mr. Brough. That the only letters she ever sent to him were for the purpose of obtaining some assistance in her distress, and that instead of helping her, he had spurned her from his door. The further examination of the case was postponed until Monday next.

RUN OVER AND KILLED .- A man in the employ of The COVER AND ALLED.—A man in the employ of the City Railroad Compeny, engaged in taking charge of the horse used for drawing the cars up the hill at Washington Park, Myrtle arenue, was ran over on Thursday afternoon, by Mr John E. Lockey, and Ailled. The occurrence appears to have been altogether accidental.
